Formed In 1958

Southeast Conference was formed in 1958 as an association of communities joined to advocate for establishment of the Alaska Marine Highway System. While our commitment to its ongoing development and efficient operation continues, Southeast Conference has greatly expanded both its membership base and its overall mission.

Still Going Strong in 2010

Today, Southeast Conference is a regional, nonprofit corporation that advances the collective interests of the people, communities and businesses in southeast Alaska. Members include municipalities, Native corporations and village councils, regional and local businesses, major statewide & national corporations, civic organizations and individuals from throughout the region. Southeast Conference is the State-designated Alaska Regional Development Organization (ARDOR), the federally-designated Economic Development District (EDD), and the federally-designated Resource Conservation and Development Council (RC&D) for Southeast Alaska. Each of these designations requires Southeast Conference to take an active role in regional resource management and economic development planning.

Here are a few of the many reasons to become a member of SEC:

- Stay on top of the industries that matter most to you with regular committee meetings.
- Current developments and highlights on events affecting our region are in our monthly newsletter.
- Continued listing in our newsletter and online membership directories.
- Your vote is valuable for the Board of Directors' election and other key issues.
- SEC will advocate for economic development interests in legislative and policy issues impacting Southeast Alaska.
- Regional networking opportunities during the Annual Membership Meeting and Mid Session Summit.
